

Creating Git Branches in Eclipse

To create a new branch in your repository, right click a shared project and navigate to Team => Switch to => New Branch... from the context menu. Select the branch you want to create a new branch from, hit New branch and enter a name for the new branch.

The new branch should appear in the branch selection window. If you would like to checkout the newly created branch, select it and click Checkout.

